

Cedar Hill Cemetery

Famous People of Cedar Hill

These individuals are just a few of the famous and or influential people of the area and beyond that are interred here at Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Justice William B. Woods – Section 8 Lot 58, Yale Graduate, Civil War Veteran, Mayor of Newark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court

General Charles R. Woods – Section 8 Lot 557, West Point Graduate, Brevet Major General of the regular Army, formed the Seventy-Sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry

Israel Dille – Section 1 Lot 458, 11th Mayor of Newark, County Commissioner, Organizer of the 1st schools in the county, started the landscaping of the Court House Square, making it the 1st arboretum of Licking County. He is buried in the highest point of the cemetery in an unmarked grave.

Major James Taylor – Section 4 Lot 411, officer in the Revolutionary War, Associate Judge of Licking County

Leonidas H. Inscho – Section 10 Lot 118, Civil War veteran, Medal of Honor

John David Spencer – Section 22 Lot 64, Owner & publisher of the Newark Advocate

Henry Jack Giles, Jr. "Jabbo" – Section 14 Row 19 #171, outstanding athlete at Newark High School

Albert C. Schweitzer – Section 20 Lot 58, Major League Baseball Player – St. Louis Browns

John McCadden – Section 5 Lot 512, Revolutionary War veteran, assisted in building a blockhouse which is said to be the 1st structure in Cincinnati Ohio.

John Veach – Section 12 Lot 66 Row 1 #28, Held the Head of Abraham Lincoln and carried him out of the theater where he was shot.

Charles D. Miller (Brevet Major) – Section 7 Lot 581, Civil War

Christopher C. Shaw – Section 4 Lot 392, Confederate Veteran

Timothy Moss – Section 23 Lot 288, Desert Storm

Glen Hutchison – Section 23 Lot 326, Desert Storm

Samuel Stacker Williams – Section 5 Lot 542, Named Buckeye Lake

Alexander Samuelson – Sec South 9 Lot 212, Invented the Coco-Cola Bottle

John David Spencer – Section 22 Lot 64, WCLT Radio Station & the Advocate

Warren Weiant Sr. – Section 7 Lot 599, 1st independent telephone Company in the U.S.

Dr. Andrew Burton – Section 21, 1st African American Doctor in Licking County

Emerson & Mary Miller – Section 5 Lot 499, Miller Elementary & Miller Library

The Rugg Family – Sec 16 Lot 4, Founders of E.T. Rugg Company

Christ Baruxes – Section 16 Lot 138, Founder of the Sparta Restaurant

George & Sophia Athan – Section 15 Lot 162, Founders of the Natoma Restaurant

Richard Baker – Section 22 Lot 54, Former Mayor of Newark

Harold L. Meek – Section 16 Lot 204, Retired from the Boston Symphony Orchestra

John Alford – Section 22 Lot 49, well-known banker with Park National Bank

Harry Beasley – Section 16 Lot 123, Medal of Honor